N.S. Information and Privacy Commissioner to release two investigation reports concerning privacy breaches of the Nova Scotia Drug Information System

HALIFAX – On Wednesday, August 1, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., Information and Privacy Commissioner for Nova Scotia Catherine Tully will release two investigation reports concerning privacy breaches of the provincial Drug Information System.

The Commissioner launched the investigations after learning an authorized user of the Drug Information System inappropriately accessed the personal health information of 46 individuals over the course of a two-year period.

The Commissioner's investigation reports will be available for download at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, August 1, 2018, at www.foipop.ns.ca.
