N.S. Information and Privacy Commissioner to release investigation report about mental health information privacy breaches

HALIFAX—On Wednesday, November 23, at 10:00 a.m., Information and Privacy Commissioner for Nova Scotia Catherine Tully will release an investigation report concerning the accidental disclosure of sensitive mental health information by fax.

The Commissioner launched an investigation after learning that mental health referral forms had been repeatedly faxed in error to a Bedford business.

The Commissioner's investigation report will be available for download at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, November 23, at: www.foipop.ns.ca.

A news release will be issued summarizing the report.
