

DEMOCRACY IN ACTION:

The Future of Your Right to Know

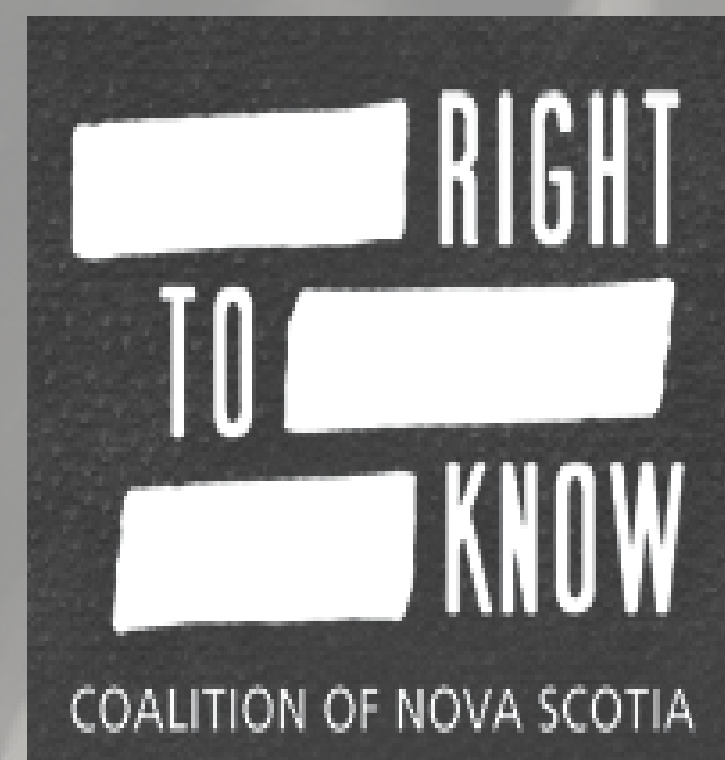

SEPTEMBER 26, 2019
5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

The world was a different place 25 years ago when Nova Scotia last updated its access to information law. Join us in celebration of international Right to Know Day for a lively panel discussion moderated by Professor Emeritus Wayne Mackay. We'll talk about Nova Scotians' Right to Know and ideas about how to improve our freedom of information laws for future generations.

Sponsored by:

CENTRE FOR LAW AND DEMOCRACY

Graham Steele
Professor of Business
Law, Dalhousie University,
Author, former MLA and former Cabinet Minister

Laura Notess
Legal Officer
Centre for Law and Democracy

Michael Karanicolas
President, Right to Know Coalition of NS
Wikimedia Fellow, Information Society Project,
Yale Law School

Janet Burt-Gerrans
Senior Investigator
Office of the Information and Privacy
Commissioner for Nova Scotia

Art Gallery of Nova Scotia
Windsor Foundation Lecture Theatre
1723 Hollis Street, Halifax

#RTK2019